

HE LEADS THE HOST

For Republicanism and Fraternal Union.

FRANKLIN D. EDDY OF LOWELL

Builder of His Own Good Name and Recipient of the Esteem and Admiration of His Friends.

F. D. Eddy of Lowell is a leader among men. He possesses the gallantry and energy which mankind admires and yields allegiance to the belligerent times of men follow such characters to heroic deaths, not seeking the sacrifice.

In peaceful times men look to such characters as custodians of public trusts and for the conservation of the public morals. Young men admire and emulate the example of men, young like themselves, who possess keen intellectuality and the instincts of leadership.

Old men gladly throw down the burdens of public and private life before such men, grateful that their tracks may be undertaken by such capable hands. In all communities such men become the recipients of public trust in accordance with the law of the survival of the fittest. Such a character as F. D. Eddy of Lowell, republican nominee for county clerk.

Mr. Eddy was born at Rome, N. Y., May 13, 1859. He came west with his father June 15, 1866, who located at Lowell, where he has since remained.

In 1874 he finished his schooling at the Lowell schools and at once undertook for himself a self-sustaining and independent career. For six years, from 1876 he was employed in the Lowell postoffice, occupying successively every position of trust and responsibility of the office. In 1881 he entered the railway mail service, a position he was obliged to resign ten months later on account of failing health. His next activity was in the direction of the book and stationery trade, a business venture in which he was successful, but failing health again caused his retirement. In 1885 he opened a real estate and insurance office in Lowell, a business venture which has proved to be very successful and one which still engages Mr. Eddy's attention.

His Fraternal Ties.

In his society life Mr. Eddy has found time for association with the leading fraternities. He is a member of Eureka lodge No. 2, Knights of Pythias of Grand Rapids. For three years Mr. Eddy was associated with a Knight of Labor lodge of Lowell, an institution which formerly enjoyed a thrifty existence. At the time of the suspension of the lodge, in 1888, he was recording secretary. He is also a member of the order of the Modern Woodmen of America, belonging to Berry tent No. 137 of Lowell. In the Ancient Order of United Workmen Mr. Eddy has long held a responsible position, he has acquitted himself creditably. He now ranks as past master workman of the order in consideration of long continued faithfulness in office. He has been recorder of Lowell lodge No. 38 for ten consecutive terms. He is commander of Eddy tent, Knights of the Macabees, an organization named in his honor.

Commander of Sons of Veterans.

Mr. Eddy possesses a martial spirit that is of hereditary origin. His father, William H. Eddy of Lowell, was formerly sergeant of Co. C, 30th New York. For many years the son has been identified with the Sons of Veterans, joining the order August 6, 1884. He was unanimously chosen captain of camp 239, division of Michigan, on that date, being the date of muster of the camp. From the first the young officer became an ardent devotee to the interests of the order, giving freely of his time and talent for its welfare. He has many times represented his camp in the state and national councils of the order and has been the recipient of its highest honors. He served with distinguished ability as a mustering officer for three years, and was made assistant inspector general of the order. For three years Captain Eddy was made delegate-at-large to the national encampment of the order and served at one time as chief of staff to the commanding officer. In 1890 he was elected colonel of the Michigan division, an honor which he richly merited and which he bore with becoming dignity.

His Political Record.

From the first Mr. Eddy has been an enthusiastic republican. He has yielded the same measure of enthusiastic support to the cause which the party has espoused. In this service he has distinguished himself for his untiring efforts. He has been a leader among men. He possesses the gallantry and energy which mankind admires and yields allegiance to the belligerent times of men follow such characters to heroic deaths, not seeking the sacrifice.

In peaceful times men look to such characters as custodians of public trusts and for the conservation of the public morals. Young men admire and emulate the example of men, young like themselves, who possess keen intellectuality and the instincts of leadership.

Joseph Hamblitz Gives Self-evident Reasons Why the Miners of the North are Protectionists.

Joseph F. Hamblitz of Houghton, republican nominee for state treasurer, is a guest at the Morton house. In an interview with a reporter for THE HERALD Mr. Hamblitz stated that notwithstanding the fact that the contest in the upper peninsula is the hottest ever known, in his opinion the republican majority will be between 3,000 and 4,000. "One or two iron mines closed down during the past year," he said, "and the opposition have taken advantage of this calamity to breed dissatisfaction among the miners and laborers, and lead them to believe all is due to republican rule. They did shake up the laboring elements for a while, but being unable to show them how they can be benefited by free trade and offering no suitable remedy, they are beginning to settle down into republican ranks and trust the republican party for relief which can only be had by a higher tariff on iron ores."

During the past three years there were imported into this country 3,000,000 tons of Cuban and Spanish ores, the production of which would require the employment of 6,000 to 7,000 men. The Cubans pay their native laborers

90 cents per day. They bring the ore in as ballast for 40 cents per ton. They ship large cargoes, and can ship every month in the year.

We pay our miners $2 to $3 per day, pay 90 cents per ton to ship the ore from Escanaba to Cleveland, and can ship but six months in a year.

They bring the Cuban ore into our market, take our money out of the country into their pockets to develop their resources.

Developed the Mines. We feel that it is best to convert our buried ores into wealth that will remain in our country, furnishing employment for labor, markets for farmers, and for Grand Rapids furniture factories, if you please. When the tariff was placed on copper, Chile, Spain and other foreign countries controlled the market. The price of copper was from 25 to 35 cents per pound.

Our mines were developed, and today we have the largest and best copper mines in the world, and copper sells at 11 cents per pound.

Houghton county is third in amount of valuations for state taxation. The miners have seen Ishpeming, Marquette, Hancock, Houghton, Calumet, Menominee, Escanaba, Sault Ste. Marie, Ironwood, Bessemer and other cities and towns spring up as the result of fostered industries; wealth has been added to the state, the shipping interests have been aided, labor has been furnished employment, markets have been opened, banks are filled with earnings of the masses, the cost of mining products has been lowered. Why, certainly the Northern Pacific is strongly republican, unless the voters have turned crazy since I left them two weeks ago. I have not studied the theory, but I am a living witness to the practical operation of a tariff law which has made the Northern Pacific helped Grand Rapids furniture factories and other industries of the state and provided a great source of revenue to the state and government.

New York for Harrison.

"We have the banner republican county of the state," said D. D. Dudley of Dunkirk, N. Y., at the New Livingston yesterday. "St. Lawrence county beat us four years ago by rolling up 8,000 for Harrison, but we intend this year to break that record. Harrison was never stronger in New York than he is today. The republicans here state are solid for him and he cannot help running. It is a great testimony to the republican policy of protection that Chautauque county, with its hundreds of workmen, always rolls up from 4,000 to 6,000 republican plurality, and this year will probably increase those figures."

city of the Park Congregational church. The social was held in the church parlors and a pleasing program was presented. The exercises were opened by singing "America" in which the whole society joined. President Martin then gave a short talk on the work expected to be accomplished during the ensuing year. Miss Nora Barnhart gave an interesting talk on the wonders of Yosemite valley, and Miss Carolyn Elliott by the aid of an outline map explained our national growth. The water ways of the west and south were traced and explained by Miss Godfrey. The entertainment concluded with two tableaux representing the wild westerner as he is expected to be and the other representing him as he is. It was a western entertainment and the room was decorated with the staple of the west, corn stalks and husks composing the decorations. After the entertainment a supper was served in western style.

Purchased Hartman's Hall. Mrs. A. G. Locherby of Grand Forks, N. D., a former resident of Rockford, has purchased Hartman's hall and the Shepard block on Ottawa street. The consideration is $225,000. This will not interfere with C. S. Hartman's lease of the two blocks, she having purchased only Dr. Shepard's interest.

It is rumored that Mrs. Locherby has not bought the Hartman and Shepard blocks, but has purchased C. S. Hartman's interest in the music house. Mr. Hartman, however, states that the sale in now way affects him, it being simply a transfer of Dr. Shepard's interest.

Self Praise. Self praise is no recommendation, but there is a time when one must permit a person to tell the truth about himself. When what he says is supported by the testimony of others no reasonable man will doubt his word. Now, to say that Alcock's Porous Plaster is the only genuine and reliable sore plaster made is not self-praise in the slightest degree. They have stood the test for over thirty years, and in proof of their merits it is only necessary to call attention to the cures they have effected and to the voluntary testimonials of those who have used them.

Beware of imitations, and do not be deceived by misrepresentation. Ask for Alcock's, and let no solicitation or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.
